DURING SAME PERIOD OF 1884: 68,902 Copies.

THE WORLD'S that of ANY TWO OTHER NEWSPAPERS COMBINED.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 14, 1889.

PRICE ONE CENT.

His Bride in Lima, O.

Cool Apologies to the Little Woman One Credulous Citizen Cured by All But Giblin Have Given Up Hope He Brought from Australia.

but Seely Will Catch It Hot in Lima.

Mrs. Brandon, the young Australian woman who followed her husband to San Francisco, and then to New York, where she spent two months looking for him and for two of their four children whom he brought with him, has now found them all. Especially her hus, and, who is more of a busband than ever, since he had taken another wife.

Mrs. Brandon found the children at the Holy Cross Academy, on West Forty-second street, on Thursday last, as told in THE EVENING WORLD, and discovered that her husband, whose name is Seely, not Brandon, was in Lima, O., in the dry-goods busi-

The niece of her husband was considerably broken up at finding that Mr. Brandon-Seely had welked off and left his wife, and on Friday she had resolved to send a telegram which would bring him to New York, but at this juncture a letter came from Seely himself saving that he would arrive in New York Saturday evening. He came as he said.

Monday morning he called at his niece's, and Mrs. Brandon, with her little four-yearold Jenny, were in the parlor while he and his niece were talking in the adjoining din-

Suddenly the little girl opened the closed door and Seely saw his wife.

Why. Frances!" he exclaimed with some embarrassment.

Considering that since he left her last January he has married another woman out in Ohio, this slight embarrassment was somewhat excusable. Mrs. Brandon, while suspecting that her husband was cavorting round with another woman, did not dream that he would make such a bold break as higamy.

Mrs. Brandon had several pertinent ques-

Mrs. Brandon had several pertinent questions to put, but received evasive answers to them all. He said he hadn't exactly told the children that she was dead, and denied that he was associated with another woman.

"I thought you had ceased to care for me, and that if I came away you might see some-body you would like better and could have him," said Mr. Seely magnanimously.

"Well, let bygones be bygones," he continued pleasantly. "Of course we aren't any of us perfect."

Mr. Seely, it will be perceived, is a little given to cuphemisms.

Mr. Seely, it will be perceived, is a little given to cuphemisms.

"I'll get you an apartment here near my niece, and as soon as I can arrange my business I'll ceme on here and stay."

He did not tell Mrs. Brandon what he meant to do with the Ohio Mrs. Seely. Probably he thought it might be convenient to have a wife in New York as well as Ohio, since his business would call for him now in one now in the other State, and he need never be out of training as a husband.

of training as a bustand.

Mrs. Brandon, now that she knows where her children are and that they are well, is content to leave Seely in peace and return to Australia. She only heard of her husband's marriage yesterday from The Even-ing World reporter, and it rather broke her up, especially as her brother, Mr. Riley, had every preparation made for starting for San every preparation made for starting for San Francisco last night.

The Ohio Mrs. Seely, who was, or rather who is, Miss Becky McDonald, of Union City, Ind. when she heard yesterday that the man she had taken for her husband was married to a woman still living, was com-pletely prostrated. She fainted and has been confined to her bed ever since.

Seely, after a pleasant day at Coney Island.

been confined to her bed ever since.

Seely, after a pleasant day at Coney Island with Mrs. Seely No. 1 and the children last Monday, wrote a nice husbandly letter to Mrs. Seely No. 2 that he would be home Thursday. Altogether Mr. Seely seems to make an excellent double husband.

make an excellent double husband.

The lawful wife of his bosom is much more lenient towards him than the Ohio Mrs. Seely, who has taken to the warpath, has secured counsel and has her father with her. Mr. Seely on his return to Ohio will have a welcome such as he wots not of.

While the reporter was talking with Mrs. Seely her husband entered the room. He is a man of medium height, conpactly built, with heavy nustache and dark-blue eyes.

The issue of this complication will be an interesting one. Mrs. Brandon is sadly broken up over the slings and srrows of outrageous fortune and longs to get back to Australia and friends. She says she can forgive but not forget her husband's cruelty.

The League.

Wom, Zost, 57 20 38 47 37 43 41 45 35 43 33 59 31 55 Baceball To-Day. THE LEAGUE.

New York at Cleveland. Boston at Pittsburg. Washington at Indianapolis. Philadelphia at Chicago. AMERICAN ASSOCIATION. Brooklyn at Kansas City. Athletics at Cincipnati. Columbus at St. Louis. Baltimore at Louisville.

ATLANTIC ASSOCIATION.

Newark at Lowell. New Haven at Hartford. Norwalk at Worcester. EXHIBITION GAMES.

Metropolitans vs. Hackett-Carbarts at the State: Island Crickets vs. Orange Athletics at Livingston, S. I.

HALL'S HAVANA HITS CIGARBOS, 10c. per box. "."

Mr. Brandon-Seely Temporarily Deserts Widely Varying Results from the Use of Hanging Day Ominously Near to the Brown-Sequard's Elixir.

Mere Milk and Water.

She Is Content to Get Her Children, The Liquid Didn't Cure Four Infirm No Sympathetic Women Allowed to Kansas City Old Men.

> Now that experiments with Dr. Brown-Sequard's new life elixir are being undertaken by so many physicians all over the country it is found that all the results reported are not equally successful.

> In the majority of cases the condition of the patients treated with the elixir has shown a marked improvement within a very short time, but in other cases the injection of the fluid has been followed by very unfavorable

> "It may be that these variations in the re sults," said a well-known physican, "is due to the degree of care or carelessness in the preparation of the clixir. Some doctors would prepare it much more carefully than

"The utmost caution should be used, for the presonce of any septic matter in the fluid would surely result in serious injury to the patient, if it did not cause death. "It is a very ticklish operation to inject a foreign substance into the blood, and it is absolutely necessary that the matter should be pure and perfectly antiseptic, or blood poisoning in some form will result."

Dr. John A. Benson, a Chicago physician, is reported to have made many experiments recently. He has never noticed any unfavorable symptoms, but his patients have not experienced that rapid return of youthful vigor which so many others have reported.

He thinks that the imagination has a good deal to do with the result. If a patient knows he is to be operated upon with the elixir he thinks that he feels better as soon as the inection is given.

The effect does not last very long and it re-

The effect does not last very long and it requires another dose of elixir and imagination to prolong the improved symptoms.

Dr. Benson says that he has used a mixture of milk and water for hypodermic injection where the patient thought it was the elixir and found that it worked like a charm.

There is a story of two Philadelphia reporters who allowed themselves to be experimented upon by Prof. H. C. Browning at the Matheo-Chirurgical Hospital with the elixir.

The next day they were both laid up in bed with high fever and pains in the back and head. Their brains were confused and they were all broken up.

There was nothing the matter with them before, but now they are both suffering from extreme debility and prostration.

At Mount Carmel, Pa., George Robertson, a cousin of the coal barou, Andrew Robertson,

At Mount Carmel, Pa., George Robertson, a cousin of the coal barou, Andrew Robertson, had been ill for several years. He went to A untic City early in this season but was brought back in a dying condition.

r. Montelino tried the slixir on him, and

r. Montelino tried the ellxir on him, and after three injections he had recovered sufficiently to be pronounced out of danger. He thinks he will get well now.

Five patients of Dr. Edward T. Smith, of Buffalo, were injected with ellxir. One was cured of spinal disease so that he can now walk without assistance, and two others got rid of their rheumatism.

Successful experiments with the elixir have been reported from Nashville Tenn. Fort Successful experiments with the clixir have been reported from Nashville, Tenn.; Fort Smith. Ark.; Washington and Baltimore.

In Kansas City the clixir was tried on four prominent but infirm citizons, and it did not work. Dr. Calloway says he is going to repeat the test, for his patients experienced no ill effects from the experiment.

Lewis, the colored man, and call there is one. Carolin is breaking up tast, it is said, and talks bitterly of his conviction.

'They are going to send an innocent man to death," he declares over and over again. Giblin savs; 'I hope I may escape yet."

Lewis says: 'Get me out of here and I will do anything you want."

New Perfected Train Which Is a Model of Luxury.

The New York and Chicago Limited Express of the Pennsylvania road, which left Jersey City at 2.15 o'clock this morning, had attached to the regular train two new vestibule drawing and stateroom sleeping cars, recently built by the Pullman Company.

They are models of elegance, comfort and perfection. They present from the outside the appearance of the ordinary sleeper. Inside the main body of the Australia, one of the new cars, is divided into twelve sections, two double berths each. The seats are up holstered in figured blue plush, and all the wood work is of highly polished mahogany. Electri-lights are fitted throughout and so arrange that one can lie in his berth and read with perfect ease.

The forward end of the cars containithe ladies.

The forward end of the cars containithe ladies' lavatory, complete in every respect. There is also a bathroom, with hot and cold water. This end of the car is as completely furnished as a ladies' private chamber. Then there is a stateroom, in white and gold, containing an upper and lower berth.

The Vacuns, as the new observation car is called, is divided in the centre by a tollet room. In the forward end there are six sleeping berths, and the other is made into one large lounging room, with luxurious chairs and settees. The end windows of the car are low and wide, so that an unobstructed view can be had from the rear of the train. All the woodwork is exquisitely carved and the upholstering is Oriental in its richness.

chness. The gentleman's observation car is made up in The gentleman's observation car is made up in the same way except that it has a smoking-room. Then there are barber shops, bathrooms and all sorts of conveniences throughout the perfected train. It was intended to have the new sleeping cars Japan, China and New Zealani and the observation car Sybaris go out to-day, but they were not ready. The France has been remodelled and is as good as new. The Lagragette Germany and Premier made up the rest of the train.

HIGHWAY ROBBERS IN POUGHKEEPSIE. A Stranger Relieved of His Gold Watch and His Money.

IMPROVAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. POUGHEEPSIE. Aug. 14.-Five well-known characters named Patrick Daws, John Maline, John Fitzpatrick, Charles Diamond and James Doran were in the police court this morning charged with highway robbery. Abraham Gannou, a stranger, was the complainant.

He met a number of men about 1 o'clock yes terday morning and asked the way to the depot, whereupon they knocked him down and kicked him terribly in the face and head and robbed him of his gold watch and money.

He identified two of the number this morning. The hearing has been fixed for Friday next.

An International Trade-Mark Convention INY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION. Madrid, Aug. 14.-The International Congress for the Protection of Industrial Property will meet here in April, 1890. Its main object will be to amend the conven-tion in regard to trade-marks.

REJOINS WIFE NO. I. NO FAITH, NO CURE. NINE DAYS TO LIVE UNDER FALLEN WALLS. TOM GOULD AGAIN. BATTLE WITH FIRE.

Five Condemned Men.

of a Respite.

Take Flowers to and Weep with Them.

Nine days more to live. Death is travelling fast for the five murterers caged in the Tombs.

Except Giblin, they have given up all hope of escaping the gallows. He has still a chance of a new trial and on this he builds a hope of life. The men are not so cheerful as they have been recently. They like the change from their old cells to the siry, well ventilated murderers' cage, but they feel that the change is an ill omen for them. The condemned arose about 7 o'clock this morning, washed, dressed and had breakfast together, like a family gathering, around the one table in their cage.

They speke quietly among themselves, but did not laugh and crack jokes as they used At 8 o'clock the night's death-watch was

At 8 o'clock the night's death-watch was relieved by the death-watch for the day, consisting of Deputy Sheriffs Capt. Burke, Wild, Sullivan, McCoy, Sweeny, Van Houten, Connelly, Elliot, Lavery and Ferguson.

The men who were on duty last night were Deputy Sheriffs Anderson, Brassel, Galligan, Bennett, O'Connor, Walsh, Terry, Ruth, Burnes and Calboun.

The men who will be on duty to-night are Deputy Sheriffs Joe Burke, O'Connor, Taylor, Whelan, Loughran, Murray, Galligan, O'Donnel, Ed Burke and Rosenthal.

These thirty and the ten named in The Evenno Wonlo, yesterday comprise the largest death-watch ever put on a band of murderers in the Tombs.

Never have there been so many men sentenced to die at one time in the Tombs before, yet the quintet are going on to the end much quieter than they would in former times.

They are not being made heroes of. Weeping women do not come and shed tears on them nor bring them flowers and tell them to look above."

Not that they wouldn't if they could. Such people come to the Tombs every day desirous of doing so, but Warden Osborne will not of doing so, but Warden Osborne will not admit them.

He tells them to take their costly bouquets to the poor in the tenement districts, and when they beg permission 'just to run in for a minute and pray with the poor fellows' he curify six issess them to go home or to church and pray for them.

The Warden will not have the murderers increased and they record by

The Warden will not have the murderers lionized, and they respect him none the less for it, because he has always ordered that they should be treated well and fairly as men, but prisoners, and so they have been.

The men are not deprived of religious consolation. Father Gelinus, a Catholic, and Dr. Heath, a Protestant elergyman, as well as two Sisters of Charity, visit the men frequently and as often as they want to. The condemned men are always glad to see them and receive the religious advice tendered them willingly. Packenheim is very devout, Giblin and Nolan not specially so, but they say they have made their peace with God and hope to be forgiven for their wrongdoings.

Lewis, the colored man, and Carolin, apparently do not believe much in a hereafter, but hope to go to heaven if there is one.

Carolin is breaking up tast, it is said, and the less hitsely of his convention.

Packenham admits "I have committed a murder, and I will pay the penalty, hoping thereby to find some mercy at the hand of God."

Noisn says brusquely, "I have nothing to say. They are going to hang me. What's the use of talking?" Nolan's father called to see him yesterday, and the meeting between the gray-haired old man and his tall, athletic son, so soon to die, was truly affecting.

Giblin's wife and baby also visited him.

After 4 o'clock in the afternoon the men are taken two at a time out for fifteen minutes of fresh air in the court-yard, in charge of four deputy sheriffs.
This is the only time they leave the cage for any purpose.

THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION. Boss Platt Said to Favor Syracuse as the Place to Hold It. The Republican State Committee will meet to-morrow at the Fifth Avenue Hotel and ratify the selection of a place for holding the State Convention of the party made by Boss Thomas C. Platt. Mr. Platt's choice is said to have fallen on the city of Syracuse, and he has determined that a good time for a convention would be the week beginning Seob. 23.

As to the probable candidates for State officers very little is being said, for it is generally understood that it will be Mr. Platt's policy to fight for the control of the Legislature this Fall, and the chances for the success of the State ticket are not considered flattering.

Mr. Platt is believed to be anxious to get a two-thirds vote in the Legislature, so that he can control this city with a new charter, and is said to be ready to sacrifice the State ticket to secure this end. For this resson candidates are not numerous. City of Syracuse, and he has determined that numerous.

Enigration Commissioner Charles Hauselt, President of the German Society of the City of New York, is occasionally referred to as a prospective candidate for Secretary of State, and United States District Judge Alfred Cleveland Coxe, of Utica, as the possible candidate for the Court of Appeals vacancy.

TWICE ROBBED.

One of Delmonico's Wagons Stolen, Recaptured and Stolen Again.

One of Delmonico's drivers had loaded wagon with champagne, cigars and canned edibles at the Beaver street establishment yesterday poon, and then retired to the restaurant for a little lunch. When he emerged he was surprised to find that the wagon and team had disappeared.

Police Capt. McLaughlin was notified, and a search was begun.

At 6 o'clock last evening another driver saw the missing wagon on Sixth avenue, driven by two men. He jumped into the wagon and caught one of the men, but the other escaped.

The stolen team and prisoner were taken to the I wenty-sixth street establishment, where it was found that fully of the fifteen cases of champagne only were left.

was found that four of the fifteen cases of cham-pagne only were left.

While they were discussing the affair, the thief escaped from the manager's office, jumped into the stolen wagon and drove off, and has not since been captured.

Crushed in Chicago.

Taken from the Ruins. The Collapse That of a Building Lately

IMPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I CHICAGO, Aug. 14.-An accident involving loss of life to an extent not yet known occurred at Clinton and Van Buren streets this morning. The walls of the Burton Building, gutted by fire a short time ago, fell in with a terrific crash, burying in the ruius all the workmen who had been engaged in clearing out the rubbish preparatory to a rebuilding.

Gutted by Fire.

Joseph Hopp's dead body has already been taken from the debris.

Nicholas Lever was found still alive, but injured so that he is in a dying condition. No more details of death and injury can be given until the work of removing the fallen mass is further advanced. There is still danger, and the work has to be carried on with great care.

The Flood-Gates of the Skies Were Wide Open This Morning.

This aquatic Job of a town was treated to another watery outbreak from 4 o'clock this morning. The rain simply poured down, doing a good deal of damage up in Tremont, and washing out places along the track and playing the mischief with sewers and the like.

The soaking citizens trailed through the streets, wearing a savage look and shooting into doorways when the spigot was turned on at a fuller head than usual. An umbrella was poor protection, as the rain playfully drove in underneath, and spattered up from the sidewalks like a fountain.

Everybody's patience is about worn out. and the Weather Bureau offers no consols tion with its monotonous prediction, "Threat ening weather and rain.'

The storm centre of the late weather unpleasantness is over the lower lake region. The storm runs through the Middle Atlantic and New England States.

The heaviest rainfall for the past twenty-four hours was at Philadelphia, 1,24. At Boston it was 1.08, and here from 4.25 a. M.

0 8 A. M., it was . 89. The storm is moving eastward. There are high winds in the northeast and along the coast. No harm has been done, though the rains were very heavy in Kansas. The highest temperature was Key West, 86 degrees, and the lowest was Minnedosa, in Ianitoba, 48 degrees.

The fall of rain in the annexed district was immense, but the trains on the Harlem road were running on time again this morning.

The work of depressing the tracks is still has been completed only to One Hundred and Fifty-second street. At a little after 5 o'clock last night it looked

At a little after 5 o'clock last night it looked around Tremont station, at One Hundred and Seventy-sixth street, as though canoes would be in demand.

A huge black cloud scooted along through the sky till it got directly over the little station, and here it bursted, and, for a few minutes, water came down in pailfuls.

At this point two track, have been sunk some ten feet below the level of the surrounding country, and the old sewers, swollen full by this flux of rain, backed up, and the roadbed was soon covered with water. Sleepers and ties, piled up alongside the track in preparation for laying two more tracks, were floated, and the cut looked like a river running through a lumber camp in a time of a freshet.

time of a freshet.

Trains were stalled, for the water put out fires in the engines and crept up till it covered the car wheels and sleepers. The passengers began to grow uneasy and ladies were inclined to be hysterical.

were inclined to be hysterical.

But the water, which was using the depressed trackway for a natural sower, found its way down towards the manufactured sewers below and becan to subside, so that the fires were rebuilt and the trains started again with a delay of about forty minutes.

There was no washout, but a narrow escape from one. The wheels of the moving trains three walness as much suitable as the modeles.

from one. The wheels of the moving trains threw almost as much splash as the paddles of a terry-boat, and the cowcatchers of the engines displaced water in a manner remindful of the prow of a steamboat.

Inquiry at the various railroad depots in Jersey City showed that although the rains had been heavy along the line of the roads no trains were delayed.

Considerable water is reported to have rushed through the cut at Fanwood station, on the Jersey Central road, but trains easily went through it. All trains were in on time.

vent through it. All trains were in on time HER FAST EASTERN TRIP.

THE CITY OF PARIS BREAKS THE RECORD TO LIVERPOOL.

No letters ever went from America to London uicker than those carried by the good ship City of Paris, whose mails will be distributed in London at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The dandy boat has made another humming trip, and breaks the record for the easterly ourse. Her time is five days, twenty-three ourse. Her time is five days, twenty-firce nours and thirty-eight minutes from Sandy Jook to Roche's Point.

I have a passenger list of 340 cabin voyagers, is not yet reported, nor a the new White Star boat, the Teutonic, which is expected to-day. Last night, at midnight, he was five days, fourteen hours and thirty ninutes out.

Francis Joseph at William's Tomb IBY CABLE TO THE PRESS NEWS ASSOCIATION.

Bealin, Aug. 14,—The Emperor Francis Joseph drove to the Castle of Charlottenburg

His Whereabouts. Old-Timer Early This Morning.

on Sixth Avenue.

He is Still in Contempt of Court for His Other Little Offenses.

Charles McPyke, a bartender at Tom Gould's new place in the basement of 372 Sixth avenue. corner of Twenty-third street, was placed under arrest at two o'clock this morning by Detective doConnell, of the Nineteenth Precinct, charged with violating the Excise law.

The officer testified that when he entered the place it was in full blast. There were twenty-six people in the place. Justice Ford held the bartender in default of $100 bail. No one appeared to bail him out,

A year ago last February Gould was accused of contempt of Court in keeping open the Sans Souci Garden, on Thirty-first street, in spite of the injunction issued by Judge Donohue the October previous.

Gould denied at the time that he was the proprietor of the garden, and Judge Patterson. pefore whom the case was argued, ordered that the matter be placed before J. Alfred Davenport, who was appointed referee. The referee has

Then Gould disappeared, as it were,

HOPE FOR KICKERS.

There seems to be an almost general misun-

There seems to be an almost general misunderstanding regarding the appointment of committees to forward the World's Fair of 1802.

If the hundreds who are grumbling because the Mayor has failed to recognize them, their trades, business or profession in his appointments of committees, and the hundreds of others who are making the life of Secretary Speer miserable with their plaints, verbal and written, would inform themselves of the situation of affairs before giving vent to their wails, they would render the work of both the Mayor and his Secretary much more easy. Hope is not dead for the representatives of various interests which did not secure representation on the Mayor's committees.

These four committees are only preliminary, and their speedy organization was necessary to get the Fair project on a good working basis at as early a date as possible.

Many coher coommittees will be appopinted.

sentation on the Mayor's committees.

These four committees are only preliminary, and their speedy organization was necessary to get the Fair project on a good working basis at as early a date as possible.

Many other committees will be appointed, as they will be found to be absolutely necessary.

To Mayor Grant was delegated the power To Mayor Grant was delegated the power to appoint four committees and he has exhausted that power.

In the General Committee is vested the power of appointing additional sub-committees, which it will do from time to time.

All nominations made to the Mayor by the several interests, will be turned over to the General Committee, as will all nominations vet to be made.

The strife for membership on committees is not over, but the Mayor gives notice that his office is no longer the scene of battle, and he should not be appealed to as the arbi-trator of the fate of candidates.

trator of the fate of candidates.

Secretary Speer, of the General Committee, invites the continuation of nominations.

"Will it never end?" was Mayor Grant's query when he gazed at the World's Fair mail—a monument of letters and documents which stared him in the face this morning.

He was assured by the corps of sympathizing reporters in waiting that it would end as the schoes of the great Exposition die away in 1898, and with this assurance that he had not an eternity of letter-opening before him, the Mayor set about his daily morning task, some of the results of which follow:

Alex. T. Van Nest is recommended by D. R. Halstead, President of the National Exchange Bank, and others as a committeeman representing the saddlery interests.

Mr. Van Nest has also been suggested as a fitting representative of the surface railronds.

A long petition asking the appointment of L. J. Calianan as the retail grocers' committeemen, was received, accompanied by a letter stating that, as the Mayor hau seen fit to select Henry Goldberger to represent that branch of business, the signers acquiesced in the choice, but ask, should further assistance be needed from the trade, that Mr. Calianan's services be called into requisition.

State Engineer and Surveyor John Bo-Secretary Speer, of the General Commit-requisition. State Engineer and Surveyor John Bogart writes accepting his appointment on the Committee on Sites and Buildings. Dr. F. T. Merriwether writes from Ashe-ville, N. C., regarding a flaw in the plan of Broker Doran to raise money for the Ex-

He sears the danger of a syndicate control-ing the entire output of bonds and bulling the price.

This fault he would remedy by limiting the number sold to any one person or corporation.

1'resident Herbert W. Johnson, of the American Sced Trade Association, indorses Dr. F. M. Hexamer as the Agricultural Manager for the great fair.

Hunter, Benn & Co., large wholesale lumber dealers, urge the Committee to consider the claims of Charles Watrous or Charles L. Adams as being the best representative of the lumber interests.

Real Estate Broker Bule sends a crude man of Hunt's Point property, which he pronunces the best of all sites, and promises to send another map of the "next best site" to morrow.

They will be respectfully referred to the Committee og Sites.

C. C. Hickok, of 88 Cedar street, joins the army of financiers who are suggesting ways and means to get the immense amount of money which must necessarily be expended on the Exposition. His plan provides for non-taxable bonds, with but 114 per cent, interest guaranted by the city.

The wool trade made Mr. George Follett its unanimous choice in the matter of com-mittee representation and ask that its nomination be confirmed.

Rosa Baberick Married at Last. Rosa Baberick, the young girl who, after losing $480, which was intended for the purchase of wedding garments, stole a dress from yesterday, where he visited the mortuary chapel in the Park.

He spent some time at the tomb of William the First and deposited a wreath of flowers upon it.

The compliment paid to Count Von Moltke by Emperor Francis Joseph in appointing him to an honorary coloneley in the Austrian army greatly pleases the public. her former mistress, Mrs. Van Antwerp, in Jer-

An Unknown Number of Workmen The Arrest of His Bartender Reveals Chief Bonner and His Men; Meet an

One Dead and One Dying Already This Time He is Doing Business Big Building on College Place and Warren Street Ablaze.

> Perilous Work for the Firemen and One Patrolman Overcome by Smoke.

The spell of rest the firemen have been en joying, with constant foreboding of coming disaster, was broken early this morning by fire that wrecked the upper part of the building 72 Warren street, destroyed $60,000 worth of property, and called out the reserves of the entire lower district to battle against heavy odds. The fact that the fire broke out on the top floor of the building, which made the work of the firemen difficult and dangerous, alone saved the insurers and the insured from a much heavier loss.

The burned building was of five stories, extending from No. 72 Warren street with a long L into College place, fronting on both thoroughfares. It was built three years ago with a showy front of Ohio bluestone in big blocks by the owner of a quarry in the Buckeye State, who wished by that means to introduce the product of his workshops into this city, and was afterwards sold to New York parties. The Giles Lithographic and Liberty Printing Company, one concern, occupied the four upper floors with a heavy plant, The firm does a big business, employing over two bundred hands, men and girls. E. P. Ballard, dealer in machine tools and ing by the water that rushed through it in torrents.

A row of printing presses filled the Warren street wing of the top floor, and piles of lithograph stones left little room in the College place L.

On the fourth floor the bindery was drowned out. Large and expensive presses on the other floors were carefully covered with tarpaulins by the insurance patrol, but were nevertheless damaged by the flood.

The firm's loss could hardly be estimated this morning. The police guessed at $10,000. It is probably at least $30,000. Insurance in a number of companies, amounting in the

It is probably at least $30,000. Insurance in a number of companies, amounting in the aggregate to over $100,000, bovers the loss.

The damage by water in E. P. Bullard's store is estimated at $10,000, but may fall somewhat below that figure. The building is damaged $20,000. All the losses are covered by insurance.

by insurance.

The fire was practically out at 4.30 o'clock. One man of the Fire Patrol was overcome by the smoke on the third floor, but recovered outside and went to work again.

Crowds of the employees in the printing shop stood about the building in drenched groups at the usual hour of getting to work this morning discussing the fire. There will be no work for them for some time.

HIS SPINAL CORD A WONDER.

IT IS STILL INTACT, THOUGH MR. BENE-DICT'S BACK IS BROKEN.

Mr. H. W. Benedict, of 317 East Fifty-seventh street, has got one of the finest spinal cords on record. He has broken his back without any injury to this delightful spinal cord of his. A broken back is not such an exceeding rarity, but to break one's back without injury to the string which holds the vertebræ is a very phenomenal thing. Mr. Benedict is a lumber merchant. Last Thursday he jumped off a Third avenue car and got hit by a car going in the opposite direction. He broke his spine near the small of the back. He has not yet shown any trace of paralysis, general or partial, which can only be accounted for on the ground that the spinal cord suffered for on the ground that the spinal cord suffered no rupture.

It must be a nice tough one when cars that run into Mr. Benedict hard enough to break his bones do not lar his spinal cord. Mr. Benedict should be proud of it.

Thanks to the staying power of this part of his anatomy, there is every likelihood, say the authorities at Bellevue, that the little break in his back can be patched up, and he may be as good a Benedict as he ever was. He is a man about forty years of age. s Benealect as he ever was. He is a man about orty years of age.

It is to be hoped that this success at such a little that as a broken back that int the orerunner of a coffin-plate will not make Mr. Benealect reckless and careless in the use of his proval column.

EIGHT RELATIVES IN TWO. Singular Complications Arising From a Stepfather Marrying His Stepdaughter.

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLS, I PITTSBURG, Aug. 14, -Young Mr. Geauf, who at present in charge of a flourishing tobacco store belonging to his stepfather in Carson street, has received word that his sister, his stepmother. his stepfather, his brother-in-law and uncle and his sister's uncle, stepfather and usband, have arrived safely in Germany. This fact doesn't look remarkable on the face of it. but becomes so when it is understood that all these relatives are included in two persons. Some years ago. William Geauf, the owner of the store, married the widow of his deceased brother. She had three or four children pretty brother. She had three or four children pretty well grown up.

Everything went pleasantly in the new household until Mrs. Geauf died.

Mr. Geauf, who is now about sixty years old, began then to feel ionely again.
His affections were fixed on his stepdaughter, Lottle Geauf, a pretty golden haired young German woman of twenty-two.

The remainder of the family expressed their disapproval of such a union, but the old man and his young love were married nevertheless, and are now doing Europe as announced above.

2 O'CLOCK.

KILRAIN ARRESTED.

A Warrant Served on Him in Baltimere This Morning.

He is Locked Up to Await the Misalsalppi Officers.

Was Served. [SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] Baltimone, Aug. 14.—Jake Kilrain, an

His Wife With Him When the Warrant

companied by his wife, arrived in the city early this morning. As he stepped from the Norfolk best, Sergt. Toner, armed with a warrant from Gov. Jackson, of Maryland, issued upon requisition of Gov. Lowry, of Mississippi, placed him under arrest. He was taken before Marshal Frey, who notified the Mississippi authorities, and then locked Kilrain up in the station house to wait-their action.

Jake was quite nervous and seemed to fear the Mississippi authorities. Marshal Frey has had the warrant sine July 30, but has been unable thus far to serve it.

Jake's wife wept bitterly.

Kilrain says he has been in Virginia, but not in hiding. He simply tried to keep out of the way until he heard what Gov. Lowry did with Sullivan.

Says He Has Been Treated Outrageously. A report that a conference had been held between Chamberlain Croker, Mayor Grant, W. Bourke Cockran and Corporation Counsel Clark, at which it was decided to ask Gov. Hill to remove Sheriff Flack, was prevalent this morning, and all sorts of rumors set afloat and conjectures made as to who would succeed to the Shrievalty in such an event. Chamberlain Croker speedily disposed of hese rumors, however. He said that in the first place there had been no such conference, and that if there had been a consultation it would not have been on the subject hinted at. ... What has Tammany to d "What has Tammany to do with Sheriff Flack's removal?" asked he.

"We have ridden the organization of him, and our interest goes no further unless the Sheriff is proven to be criminally responsible, when we would have the same interest that every other good citizen would have in seeing good government.

"I consider that Tammany Hall has done all that it can in securing Sheriff Flack's withdrawal from the organization.

"Every Tammany man connected with the affair will share the same fate. Every one of them will be removed from the organization unless he resigns."

This means that Civil Justice Monell and Referres Joseph Meeks, his brother-in-law, will be set outside the sale of Tammany in short order.

short order.

Mayor Grant also denied that he had con-ferred with Chamberlain Croker or the other gentlemen named regarding this matother gentlemen named regarding this matter.

There were no more surprises in the Flack divorce proceedings this morning. It was reported that statements would be made by Judge Ambrose Monell and Joseph Meeks, the ex-referee in the case, but the former said he was not yet ready to make full disclosures, and the latter was not to be found. Judge Monell, however, made some rather interesting statements regarding the proceedings of yesterday in Judge Bookstaver's court to an Evening Woald reporter whe visited him at his office in the Stewart Building.

court to an Evening Woald reporter whe visited him at his office in the Stewart Building.

"The Judge and the public seem to have assumed." he said. "that every statement made by Mrs. Flack and Mr. Wright in the affidavits is the truth. Supposing, for instance, that it could be shown that every statement made by Mrs. Flack was a tissue of falsehoods?"

"Do you mean to say such is the case?"

"No, but I'm ouly assuming that it might be so in order to show the position in which Mr. Flack, Ms. Weeks and myself are placed by having the case decided on statements made by one side alone."

"Hew about Mr. Wright's affidavit?"

"Well, it's just the same way.

"He comes into court and makes statements which we are not permitted to explain, and in addition to this the Judge reads a lecture from the bench. In my opinion it is an an outrage."

"Did you not authorize Mr. Wright to sot as attorney for Mrs. Flack?"

"I never spoke a word to Mr. Wright in my life about the Flack case."

"You don't deny the authenticity of your letter to Mr. Wright of April 23 authorizing my life about the Flack case."

"You don't deny the authenticity of your letter to Mr. Wright of April 23 authorizing him to appear for Mrs. Flack?"

"Well, I don't deny or affirm it. I will say this. however, that Mr. Wright knew, personally of every phase of that suit from beginning to end. There is such a thing as giving a wrong impression to the Court and the public by concealing a part of the truth."

WARDEN VOUGHT DROPS DEAD.

In Charge of the Blackwell's Island Almshouse for Sixteen Years. News of the sudden death of Marshail Vought, the veteran Warden of the City Almshouse con Blackwell's Island, was brought to the Commissioners of Charities this morning.

Mr. Vought dropped dead at the Almshouse last night of hearf disease. He had been Wardenfor sixteen years and was heartily liked.

His death leaves a $1.350 a year vacancy for the Commissioners to fill.